Dr Jean Lim is a General Paediatrician who cares for children from newborns to adolescents. She sees patients with acute and chronic conditions, including children with developmental and behavioural concerns. She has a compassionate, holistic, child and family-based approach to paediatric health care. Her broad experience in general paediatrics have instilled in her a passionate commitment to promote health in every child, no matter what their background or circumstance.

Jean studied medicine at the University of Cambridge, United Kingdom, graduating with distinction. She completed her specialist paediatric training at The Children's Hospital at Westmead and paediatric fellowship at Royal North Shore Hospital before moving to the northern beaches as a Consultant Paediatrician at Mona Vale and Manly Hospitals.

Jean is fluent in English and Mandarin Chinese.
